

DEITY LYRICS

DEITY

When the Moon is lit
On her Eastern side
And I slowly am centering, centering
When my blood is pulled
With the waning tide
And I fall and am willingly entering
Night, the dark, the womb that's hollow
It's here I've found a voice to follow

I am the Maiden
I am the Mother
I am the Crone
I am the sea
I am the sky
I am the blood
I am the Moon
Never alone, never alone, never alone

When the Moon is lit
On her Western side
And she slowly is brightening, brightening
When the Earth is full
With the waxing tide
And I breathe with it, ripening, ripening
See, reflected in the water
The older Moon held by her daughter

I am the Maiden
I am the Mother
I am the Crone
I am the sea
I am the sky
I am the blood
I am the Moon
Never alone, never alone, never alone

THINK OF THE DAY

When you have faded away
When you are lost to the night
May you return to me,
May all your battles be easy to fight
Sometimes the Underworld
Calls you away
When you are far below

Think of the day

I'm disappointed in you
Walking the path that is worn
What are you meant to do?
Should I expect you to hold back the storm?
I know the Underworld
Needs to be fed
Sometimes I feel you are Too easily led

So, where do I go?
Down where the river flows
Down where the river flows
I, I am alone
I am the water and I am the stone

My you discover the right
Journey for keeping you whole
May all your choices be
Ones that intrinsically honour your soul
Sometimes the Underworld
Calls you away
When you are lost to light
Think of the day

So, where do I go?
Down where the river flows
I, I am alone
I am the water and I am the stone

When you have faded away
May you return to me,
May all your battles be easy to fight
I know the Underworld
Calls you away
Think of the day
When you are far below
When you are far below
When you are far below
Think of the day

OPEN MY SENSES

I cannot bear to feel so closed
Open my senses
Open my senses

Under my skin a hunger grows
Open my senses
Open my senses

Sleep wash over my days
Dream the darkness
Dream the shadow
Night sings wisdom in so many ways
I want to feel what I know I have felt before
I want to see what is hidden behind the door
I want to be where I know I can witness the core

Upon a sea I am afloat
And you are calling
And you are calling
You are the tide, you are the boat
And you are calling

Sleep wash over my days
Dream the darkness
Dream the shadow
Night sings wisdom in so many ways
I want to feel what I know I have felt before
I want to see what is hidden behind the door
I want to be where I know I can witness the core

Sleep wash over my days
Dream the darkness
Dream the shadow
I've been wounded in so many ways
I want to feel what I know I have felt before
I want to see what is hidden behind the door
I want to be where I know I can witness the core
Open the door

DANSE MACABRE

Be it the death of a child
Be it the love that floats on a sorrow
Be it the torture of splendor
That leads your heart away
Into the morrow

Be it the joy that cuts deep
Be it the wail of terror

Be it the softness, the softness of fear
That settles in your heart
Whenever Love is near

And I have heard it before
And I have felt it before
Each time the thousands time thousands of souls
Within each thousand years
Has put its cell in me

And all I can hear
The cry
And all I can feel
The pain
And all I can see
The lives
That went ahead of me
That felt intensity

And I am crying with you
And I am moaning desire
And you have laid down your gift to my soul
I have your memory
In every cell of me

And all I can hear
The cry
And all I can feel
The pain
And all I can see
The lives
That went ahead of me
That felt intensity
I have their memory
In every cell of me

ARTEMIS

From skies of blue you call me
Run far from the light
From skies of blue you call me
Kiss the night, Kiss the night
I am awake in moonlight
Dreams question the day
I am awake in soul light
Run away, run away

Follow me, follow me
I will lead you into your life
Under the trees

I am Artemis of The Eucalypts
Follow me

And in her heart, the hunter
She sharpens the knife
And now my bow is drawn to
Wild life, my wild life
Deep in her death, I'm frightened
Freedom can be cruel
And in her life, enlightened
Sister brave and beautiful

Follow me, follow me
I will lead you into your life
Under the trees
Follow me

SHINE

You were lost you were bound you were captured
With your infinite soul counting hours
In a web where each thread held the future
And the future holds infinite powers

You are braver than mythical heroes
You have rescued the child of the dreamland
You have conquered the beast of the shadow
The Universe is centred on where you stand

Feel the world at your feet
Freedom calls you from time
And all because you shine
You, you are drinking the nectar divine

You have broken the rings that hold Saturn
You are shedding the clothes of your sorrow
And the Summer is singing its passion
And the Universe calls you to follow

Feel the world at your feet

BLISS

All I know is the way to the Dark
Shine me a light, I'll walk in its shadow
Twilight comes, it calls me to follow

I am the night, the Moon is my lover

Under the stars
Under the trees
I'm lying open like a flower
In Summer scented heavy
And I can feel the stars caressing me

All I know is that night is a woman
Risen in stars, her hair is the shadow
Venus falls like a kiss from a lover
I am the Earth, the Earth is desire

Under the stars
Under the trees
I'm lying open like a flower

FULL MOON IN SCORPIO

Full Moon in Scorpio
My blood is aching and I want to go
As far away from here as I can go
And drown in the sea

Full Moon in Scorpio
My mind is flooding in the water's flow
Beware the light, beware the glow
Descend into Hell, Hell, Hell
Hell, Hell, Hell
Leave my life
Leave my death
Lead me through the fields
Of Asphodel
Of Asphodel
Of Asphodel

Full moon in Scorpio
The Earth is calling from the rocks below
Beware the light beware the glow
And soft sings the sea
Soft sings the sea

Full Moon in Scorpio

Of Asphodel
Of Asphodel
Of Asphodel

OH HOW I DREAMED

Mother, with your hand in mine
We will walk the way
Of the Dark Divine
We will kiss the soil
We will cross the line

Oh how I dreamed of things impossible

Seems like a life ago
I had walked the fields where the flowers grow
I had picked the bloom of my beautiful sorrow

Oh how I dreamed of things impossible

You would scream despair and dry the teeming land
And reach beneath the Earth, offer me your hand
And save me, save me, save me, save me

Sometimes I feel your pain
Life a driven nail
Like the falling rain
Like the future pulled through an open vein

Oh how I dreamed of things impossible

See the gaping wound
The love on which I float
Your love is both the poison
And the antidote
That saves me
That saves me.
Save me

NIGHT SEA JOURNEY

Sail slow as the Moon
Lights our way home
Into her echoing womb
Deep water is dark
Darkness is bright
In the hair of the Queen of the Night

Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me

Dive, water is cold
Water is cruel
Water that quickens your soul
Nothing, nothing is all
All is within
Nothing can soften Her call

Turn from the shore
Leave your reason
Drink the darkness
Taste the terrible night
Night
Night

Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me
Come to me, come to me

Sail over the sea
Ocean of dreams
To the arms of Persephone
