

THE WOLF SKY LYRICS

THE CIRCLE SONG

The East, the Air,
The sword, the mind
The gate that leaves the night behind

The North, the Sun
The flame, the Fire
The gateway to our souls' desire

The West, the womb
The Water's flow
The gateway to the world below

The South, the star
The silent Earth
The Gateway to our souls' rebirth

THE WOLF SKY

I lay upon the hill
That lay beneath the wolf sky
I felt the dark clouds forming
An omen apparition
And with the thunder rolling
A howl preceded the storm

We lay within the bird
That lay upon the hill side
We lay within its wing and
We felt the bird within us
And with the thunder rolling
We left the ground for the sky

We drank the dark clouds deeper
And ran the wild moon hunting
Alive with fur and feather
As omen apparition
We left the moon suspended
And leapt back onto the ground

We lay upon the hill
That lay beneath the wolf sky
We felt the dark clouds forming
An omen apparition
And with the thunder rolling

A howl preceded the storm
We lay beneath the wolf sky

OBLIVION

Who is whispering behind the veil?
I cannot see her face
But I know that it is pale
I cannot see her lips
But I know I want to kiss them
And when she calls my name
I will no longer resist them

Who is whispering behind the veil?
She calls me to let go
To leave this damaged world I'm living in
To feel it slip away
To taste the sweetness of oblivion

And with the roar of thunder
Hear me call you under
Do you hear me call you under?
Hear me call you under
My fingers long to feel you
Caress you, reveal you
Undress your soul and steal you
Away

Who is whispering behind the veil?
I long to see her face
But I fear that I will fail
To look into her eyes
To see my spirit splinter
To feel my blood run cold
To see the dead of winter

And with the roar of thunder
Hear me call you under
Do you hear me call you under?
Hear me call you under
And there is no denying
All of life is dying
But still I hear you crying
Not now
Not now
Not now

SHE DANCED ALONE UPON THE WAVES

She danced alone upon the waves
Alone upon the water
Alone upon the water
She took the north wind by the tail
Caressed it till she felt the serpent scale
He coiled around her limbs divine
Her dance as wild as fire
Her dance as wild as fire
She had created sea from sky
And knew her Lover loved her movements

Once she divided the sky from the ocean
All of creation was then set in motion
Becoming dove upon the sea
She laid the egg that held eternity

The serpent spiraled round its form
And cradled in its magic Cradled in its magic
The sacred vessel soon grew warm
And split to open all existence

Out of it tumbled the Earth and her creatures
Rivers and mountains and forests and beaches
Out of it Sun
Out of it Moon
And born of chaos was existence

HALF LIFE

It's not like I want it back again
It's not like I want the sky to open
And rain down in visions of black again
But now that the Sun has finally broken through
There's not a lot I can do
There's not a lot I can do
The sky is perfectly blue

The wind comes and whips the trees bare again
The wind comes, exposing secrets of the form
Part of me wants to be there again
Restless, naked, howling for the dawn
I'm not invoking a storm
I'm not invoking a storm
The air is perfectly warm

It's not like I want it back again

Chaos can find another lover
It's not like I'm wearing all black again
The days come sweet, but are they cutting through?
There's not a lot I can do
There's not a lot I can do
The sky is perfectly blue

If it's not Love then make it pain
Not some sort of Half Life I can't explain
And if it's peace then make it real
Not this sort of numbness I cannot feel
Take all my joy but leave me my fears
This sort of Half Life bores me to tears
So bring me rapture
And bring me bliss
Or take it all away
But don't leave me this

It's not like I want it back again
It's not like I want my heart ripped open
In some sort of vicious attack again
But now that the Sun has finally broken through
There's not a lot I can do
There's not a lot I can do

THE FALL

I fall, I fall
Into the darkest hole
I fall
I fall, I fall
Into the darkest hole
I fall

And I move
Move as though my skin were scales
As though the soil were water
And I was the wave
As though the soil were water
And everywhere the sapphire sea
Was Life was Life was Life
And the ocean was singing to me

I fall, I fall
Into the darkest hole
I fall
I fall, I fall
Into the darkest hole
I fall

And I move
Move as though the sky and sea
Were no longer separate
And the waves that wash over me
Were no longer separate
And the waves that wash over me
Are alive, alive, alive
With a force that I cannot sea

I fall, I fall
Into the darkest hole
I fall
I fall, I fall
Into the darkest hole
I fall

And I move
Any way I want to move
As though my fingers were feathers
And I could fly to the Moon
As though my fingers were feathers
And everywhere I looked was night
And my eyes, my eyes, my eyes
They could see where there was no light

CREATOR DESTROYER

From the depths of the forest She will find you
She will drag you up and call you into being
She will lay her naked body on the debris
She will howl until Her spirit overruns the city

She will rise up through the gaps between the pavements
She will buckle train lines, bridges all collapsing
And the towers of the mighty become frail
As She opens up her belly to devour

Come and take over, Creator Destroyer
Come and take over
Come and take over, Creator Destroyer
Come and take over

She will pour Her molten core upon the runways
She will leave Her rusting hulls upon the shoreline
She will swallow up the iron that was stolen
She will vomit up the plastic and the poison

Her oceans will make islands of the mainlands
Her tendrils will be wrapped around the cables
And the buried bones of buildings will lie vacant
As She feeds upon the ribcage of forever, forever

Come and take over, Creator Destroyer
Come and take over
Come and take over, Creator Destroyer
Come and take over

DARK WINGS

I'm going down
Down into soil
I'm going down
Dark wings will guide me
I know the way
For I have been there
So many times
I cannot count them
And though I know
I will return when
When the deed is done
When the seed is growing
My heart is scared
My limbs are shaking
It seems too cruel
To have to do this
Over and over
Over and over
Why can't I find
Some secret passage
That takes me there
Without the pain
My midnight wings
Beating in beauty
My conscious mind
My core of wisdom
Honours the dark essential journey
But when I'm crying
But when I'm crying
It seems so hard
Hard to remember
I'm going down
Down into soil
I'm going down

FIRE HORSE

Life flowing through time
As fleeting as bright as the dawn
And lately I'm feeling that I'm
A shapeshifter wearing this form

Earth is the ground beneath my feet
Water the blood that's flowing through me
Air is the sky I run beneath
Fire the will that keeps me running

Witness the sky
The seasons that ceaselessly turn
The planets that rise and then fall
The stars that continue to burn

The soul in my centre is wild
A horse that can never be tamed
I knew this when I was a child
I'm learning it over again

Earth is the ground beneath my feet
Water the blood that's flowing through me
Air is the sky I run beneath
Fire the will that keeps me running
Through the storm
Through the storm
Magic is born of Love
Love, Love, Love

Earth is the ground beneath my feet
Water the blood that's flowing through me
Air is the sky I run beneath
Fire the will that keeps me running
Through the storm
Through the storm

EVOLUTION

It's started over
It's started over
Just when you think it's finished
It's started over
Just when you think we'd got some angle on it

Just when you think we'd somehow grown with evolution

Then all the fighting, then all the fighting
Highlighting difference when we should be uniting
Just when you think the battle's finally over
Just when you think that Love had offered a solution

My heart is crying, my heart is crying
Witnessing visions of the innocent dying
I can't believe we're ever born this vicious
Only a damaged heart could carry such pollution

What are we learning?
What are we learning?
The past may disappear but
It keeps returning
Just when you think the battle's finally over
Just when you think that Love had caused a revolution

It's started over
It's started over
It's started over
Just when you think we'd somehow grown with evolution

THE WINDOW

Calling, something is calling
Through cracks of daylight
Something is calling
If I, if I don't close my eyes
Then I won't see it
And it won't call me and question

What do you see at the window?
What is light, what is shadow?
What is past and what is yet to be?
What is complete and what has all gone wrong?

Lately I don't like sleeping
I'm waking tired
I'm waking tired
If I, if I don't close my eyes
Then I won't see it
And it won't call me and question

What do you see at the window?
What is light, what is shadow?

What is past and what is yet to be?
What is complete and what has all gone wrong?
Has it all gone wrong?
Has it all gone wrong?

THE EARTH IS STILL PART OF THE SKY

Call down a ray of light
Into my crying heart
My love, the angels are calling us
Somehow I feel it's much too soon to part
Lay down your sword
My heart is open
A tender word
From lover to lover
Needs to be spoken

Call down a ray of light
Into my crying eyes
Distance is just an illusion
I have held on to
For far too long now
I'm letting go
I long to fly

The Earth is still part of the Sky
And this is bigger,
So much bigger, so much bigger
Than you or I
The Earth is still part of the Sky
And this is bigger,
So much bigger, so much bigger
Than you or I
The Earth is still part of the Sky

ELEMENTAL CHANT

Earth Air Fire and Water

I stand at the centre
And acknowledge each quarter
The Earth is my mother
And I know as her daughter
The circle extends to the stars
And goes on forever
